

THANKSGIVING

In the French Countryside

November 23, 24, 25

The third annual Thanksgiving in Sologne. Just 90 minutes south of Paris, 15 minutes from Chambord and other Loire Valley castles. Arrive Friday evening and enjoy a typical French game dinner. After breakfast Saturday feel free to visit the area or simply curl up by the fire. A traditional Thanksgiving dinner will be served Saturday evening. Breakfast Sunday is at your leisure as is your day. If the weather is nice take our bikes and discover the forest that is at our doorstep, or look for that treasure at one of the many flea markets. Prices start at 185 € for the weekend.

Possibility of transport from the station.
